

Sociology

Awarding Body	AQA	Specification Code	7192
Purpose of the course	This course offers an engaging and effective introduction to Sociology. Students will learn the fundamentals of the subject and develop skills valued by higher education and employers including critical analysis, independent thinking and research. It provides an awareness and interest in social issues.
Entry requirements	Grade 5 or above in English Language GCSE
Type of qualification	A Level
Course contents	Four themes: Families and households, Education, Beliefs, Crime and deviance with theory and methods.
Assessment method	A two year linear qualification. Externally Assessed Examination Mainly essay questions with some short questions.
Further studies	Sociology A Level content is extremely useful in a large and diverse range of further studies.
More information from	Mrs P Kelly		